¹THE HINDU GAINS OF LEARNING ACT, 1930
(XXX of 1930)

[25th July, 1930]

An Act

to remove doubt as to the rights of a member of a Hindu undivided family in property acquired by him by means of his learning.

WHEREAS it is expedient to remove doubt, and to provide a uniform rule, as to the rights of a member of a Hindu undivided family in property acquired by him by means of his learning;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title and extent.— (1) This Act may be called the Hindu Gains of Learning Act, 1930.

²[(2) It extends to the whole of ³[the Province of the Punjab].]

2. Definitions.— In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (a) “acquirer” means a member of a Hindu undivided family, who acquires gains of learning;
- (b) “gains of learning” means all acquisitions of property made substantially by means of learning, whether such acquisitions be made before or after the commencement of this Act and whether such acquisitions be the ordinary or the extraordinary result of such learning; and
- (c) “learning” means education, whether elementary, technical, scientific, special or general, and training of every kind which is usually intended to enable a person to pursue any trade, industry, profession or a vocation in life.

3. Gains of learning not to be held not to be separate property of acquirer merely for certain reasons.— Notwithstanding any custom, rule or interpretation of the Hindu Law, no gains of learning shall be held not to be the exclusive and separate property of the acquirer merely by reasons of—
