4. Insertion of section 44, Act XL of 2016.- In the said Act, after section 44, the following new section shall be inserted, namely:-

"44A. Timeline to conclude the trial and supervision by the High Court.— (1) The trial shall be concluded expeditiously, but preferably not later than six months of taking cognizance of the case.

(2) The Court shall submit a monthly progress report of any pending trial to the concerned High Court and shall give reasons for the inability of the Court to expeditiously conclude the trial, with copies to the Secretary, Ministry of Law and Justice, Islamabad, with regard to the Islamabad Capital Territory, and the respective Provincial Secretaries of Prosecution Departments, and the Prosecutor General or the Advocate General, as the case may be, with regard to concerned provinces.

(3) In case the High Court finds the reasons given by the Court under sub-section (2) to be plausible and beyond the control of the Court, it may accept the explanation of the Court, and prescribe fresh timelines for conclusion of a trial.

(4) Where the High Court comes to the conclusion that there are difficulties, hindrances, and obstacles for concluding a trial expeditiously, which are removable by the Federal or Provincial Government or any of its officers, as the case may be, it shall call upon the Federal or Provincial Government or any of its officers to remove such difficulties, hindrances and obstacles.

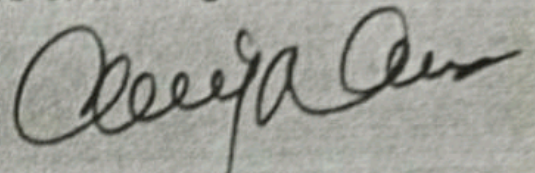

(5) Where the Secretary, Ministry of Law and Justice or the Provincial Secretaries of Law and Justice, as the case may be, is of the opinion that the delay in the disposal of the trial is attributable to the Presiding Officer or any of its functionaries, it shall furnish such information to the concerned High Court, proposing suitable action.

(6) Where the High Court is of the view that the delay in the disposal of the trial is attributable to the Presiding Officer of the Court or any of the Court's functionaries, it shall commence or direct the commencement of appropriate disciplinary proceedings, in accordance with law, against them.

(7) The Chief Justice of every High Court shall nominate a Judge along with other officers of the High Court for acting under this section."
