tenancy, the Administrator may give to such lessee or tenant a notice to appear before the Administrator and state his objections, if any, before an order for the termination of lease or resumption of the tenancy is made.

(2) The lessee or the tenant to whom a notice is given under subsection (1) may undertake in writing to the Administrator that the breach of the conditions of the lease or tenancy specified in such notice is likely to be rectified and he shall rectify such breach.

(3) If the Administrator is satisfied that the breach is likely to be rectified, he shall allow to the lessee or the tenant, as the case may be, a period not less than thirty days or more than sixty days to rectify such breach, and may make an order terminating the lease or resuming the tenancy if the lessee or the tenant fails to rectify the breach within the stipulated time.

(4) Where an order terminating the lease or resuming the tenancy has been made under subsection (3), the Administrator may forthwith resume the possession of a waqf property, subject to the payment of compensation to be fixed by the Administrator for standing and un-gathered crops or for the improvements of the waqf property, if any, that have been made by the lessee or the tenant under the terms of the lease or the tenancy or made with the permission of the Administrator.

(5) If a lease or tenancy of a waqf property is terminated or resumed and is allotted to any other person, the amount of the compensation, if any, paid to the outgoing lessee or tenant under sub-section (4) may be recovered from such person to whom such property is allotted.]

10. Appeal and finality.— (1) Any person evicted under the provisions of section 8 or aggrieved by an order of termination of lease or resumption of tenancy made under section 9 may within sixty days of such eviction or within thirty days of the order of termination of the lease or resumption of tenancy, prefer an appeal to the Chief Administrator and the Chief Administrator after giving such person an opportunity of being heard, confirm, modify or vacate the order made by the Administrator under section 8 or 9.

(2) If there is no appeal against an eviction under section 8 or an order of termination of lease or resumption of tenancy made by the Administrator under section 9 the eviction, termination of lease or resumption of tenancy, as the case may be, shall be final and when there is an appeal, the decision of the Chief Administrator in appeal shall be final.

11. Petition to District Court against notification.— (1) Any person claiming any interest in any waqf property in respect of which a notification has been issued under section 7 may within thirty days of the publication of such notification petition the District court within whose jurisdiction the waqf property or any part thereof is situated for a declaration—

- (a) that the property is not waqf property;
- (b) that the property is waqf property within limits stated in the petition:

Provided that notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, or in any custom or usage, or in any decree, judgement, or order of any court or other authority, or in any proceeding pending before any court or other authority, no such petition shall lie in respect of any interest in the income, offerings, subscriptions or articles referred to in Explanation 4 to clause (c) of section 2, or the services or ceremonies (Rasoomat) mentioned in section 7.

(2) The District Court may, for reasons to be recorded, refuse to issue any process for compelling the attendance of any witness for the purpose of examination or the production of any document or other thing if it considers that it has been made for the purpose of vexation or delay.

12. Appeal against the decision of District Court.— Any person aggrieved by a decision of the District Court under sub-section (1) of section 11 may, within sixty days of the order, appeal to the High Court.

13. District Court and High Court not to issue temporary injunction or order.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other enactment for the time being in force, the District Court or the High Court shall not, pending disposal of a petition filed under section 11 or an appeal filed under section 12, have the power to issue temporary injunction or order restraining the Chief Administrator from taking over or assuming the administration, control, management and maintenance of property in respect of which a notification has been issued under section 7.

14. Decision of the District Court under section 11 or the High Court under section 12 to be final.— If there is no appeal, the decision of the District Court, or when there is an appeal the decision in appeal shall be final.

15. Chief Administrator to prepare the scheme for administration of waqf property.— (1) The Chief Administrator shall, as respects the waqf property in respect of which a notification under section 7 has been issued and the gross annual income from which exceeds five thousand rupees and in other cases may, settle a scheme for the administration and development of such waqf property.

(2) In the settlement of a scheme the Chief Administrator shall give effect to such wishes of the person dedicating as can be ascertained, and to which effect can be reasonably given.

16. Sale of waqf property by Chief <sup>16</sup>[Administrator] and application of proceeds.— Government may <sup>17</sup>[subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of Section 15,] where it is satisfied that circumstances exist which make it necessary to sell or otherwise dispose of any waqf property in order:—

- (a) to secure maximum economic benefits out of such property and to avoid loss or damage to such property; or
- (b) to serve the best public interest and public purpose for which such property was dedicated; or
