Provided—

- (1) that no such certificate shall be issued until the expiration of four days after the date of the notice by such Minister;
- (2) that no lawful impediment be shown to his satisfaction why such certificate should not issue; and
- (3) that the issue of certificate has not been forbidden, in manner hereinafter mentioned, by any person authorized.

18. Declaration before issue of certificate.— The certificate mentioned in section 17 shall not be issued until one of the persons intending marriage has appeared personally before the Minister and made a solemn declaration—

- (a) that he or she believes that there is not any impediment of kindred or affinity or other lawful hindrance to the said marriage, and when either or both of the parties is or are minor or minors.
- (b) That the consent or consents required by law has or have been obtained there is no person resident in Pakistan having authority to give such consent, as the case may be.

19. Consent of father or guardian or mother.— The father, if living, of any minor, or if, the father be dead, the guardian of such minor, and in case there be no such guardian then the mother of such minor, may give consent to the minor's marriage, and such consent is hereby required for the same marriage unless no person authorized to give such consent be resident in Pakistan.

20. Power to prohibit by notice issue of certificate.— Every person whose consent to a marriage is required under section 19 is hereby authorized to prohibit the issue of the certificate by any Minister, at any time before the issue of the same, by notice in writing to such Minister, subscribed by the person so authorized with his or her name and place of abode and position with respect to either of the persons intending marriage by reason of which he or she is so authorized as aforesaid.

21. Procedure on receipt of notice.— If any such notice be received by such Minister he shall not issue his certificate and shall not solemnize the said marriage until he has examined into the matter of the said prohibition, and is satisfied that the person prohibiting the marriage has not lawful authority for such prohibition, or until the said notice is withdrawn by the person who gave it.

22. Issue of certificate in case of minority.— When either of the persons intending marriage is a minor, and the Minister is not satisfied that the consent of the person whose consent to such marriage is required by section 19 has been obtained, such Minister shall not issue such certificate until the expiration of fourteen days after the receipt by him of the notice of marriage.

23. Issue of certificate to Native Christians.— When any Native Christian about to be married takes notice of marriage to a Minister of Religion, or applies for a certificate from such Minister under section 17, such Minister shall, before issuing the certificate ascertain whether such Native Christian is cognizant of the purport and effect of the said notice or certificate, as the case may be, and, if not, shall translate or cause to be translated the notice or certificate to such Native Christian into some language which he understands.

24. Form of certificate.— The certificate to be issued by such Minister shall be in the form contained in the Second Schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect.

25. Solemnization of marriage.— After the issue of the certificate by Minister, marriage may be solemnized between the persons therein described according to such form or ceremony as the Minister thinks fit to adopt:

Provided that the marriage be solemnized in the presence of at least two witnesses besides the Minister.

26. Certificates void if marriage not solemnized within two months.— Whenever a marriage is not solemnized with two months after the date of the certificate issued by such Minister as aforesaid such certificate and all proceedings (if any), thereon shall be void.

And no person shall proceed to solemnize the said marriage until new notice has been given and a certificate thereof issued in the manner aforesaid.

PART IV

Such quarterly returns shall contain all the entries of marriages contained in the said register from the first day of January to the thirty-first day of March from the first day of April to the thirtieth day of June, from the first day of July to the thirtieth day of September, and from the first day of October to the thirty-first day of December, of each year respectively, and shall be sent by such Clergyman within two weeks from the expiration of each of the quarters above specified.

The said Registrar upon receiving the said returns shall send one copy thereof to the Registrar General of Birth Deaths and Marriages.

30. Registration and returns of marriages solemnized by clergymen of Church of Rome.— Every marriage solemnized by a Clergyman of the Church of Rome shall be registered by the person and according to the form directed in that behalf by the Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese or Vicariate, in which such marriage is solemnized, and such person shall forward quarterly to the Register General of Births, Deaths and Marriages returns of the entries of all marriages registered by him during the three months next preceding.

31. Registration and returns of marriages solemnized by Clergymen of Church of Scotland.— Every Clergymen of the Church of Scotland shall keep a register of marriages, and shall register therein, according to the tabular form set forth in the Third Schedule hereto annexed, every marriage which he solemnizes under this Act, and shall forward quarterly to the Registrar General of Births, Death and Marriages, through the Senior Chaplain of the Church of Scotland, returns, similar to those prescribed in section 29, of all such marriages.

32. Certain marriages to be registered in duplicate.— Every marriage solemnized by any person who has received episcopal ordination, but who is not a Clergyman of the Church of England, or of the Church of Rome, or by any Minister of Religion licensed under this Act to solemnize marriages, shall, immediately after the solemnization thereof be registered in duplicated by the same; (that is to say) in a marriage register-book to be kept by him for that purpose, according to the form contained in the Fourth Schedule hereto annexed and also in a certificate attached to be marriage-register-book as a counterfoil.

33. Entries of such marriages to be signed and attested.— The entry of such marriage in both the certificate and marriage-register-book shall be signed by the person solemnizing the marriage, and also by the persons married and shall be attested by two credible witnesses, other than the person solemnizing the marriage, present at its solemnization.

Every such entry shall be made in order from the beginning to the end of the book, and the number of the certificate shall correspond with that of the entry in the marriage-register-book.

34. Certificate to be forwarded to Marriage Registrar, copied and sent to Registrar General.— The person solemnizing the marriage shall forthwith separate the certificate from the marriage-register-book and send it, within one month from the time of the solemnization, to the Marriage Registrar of the district in which the marriage was solemnized, or, if there be more Marriage Registrars than one, to the Senior Marriage Registrar, who shall cause such certificate to be copied into a book to be kept by him for that purpose.

And shall send all the certificates which he has received during the month, with such number and signature or initials added thereto as are hereinafter required, to the Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

35. Copies of certificates to be entered and numbered.— Such copies shall be entered in order from the beginning to the end of the said book and shall bear both the number of the certificate as copied and also a number to be entered by the Marriage Registrar indicating the number of the entry of the said copy in the said book, according to the order in which he receives each certificate.

36. Registrar to add number of entry to certificate and send to Registrar General.— The Marriage Registrar shall also add such last mentioned number of the entry of the in the book to the certificate, with his signature or initials, and shall, at the end of every month send the same to the Registrar General of birth Deaths and Marriages.

37. Registration of marriages between Native Christians by persons referred to clauses (1), (2) and (3)of section 5.— When any marriage between Native Christians is solemnized by any such person, Clergyman or Minister of Religion as is referred to in clause (1) clause (2) or clause (30 of section 5, the person solemnizing the same shall, instead of proceeding in the manner provided by sections 28 to 36, both inclusive, register the marriage in a separate register-book, and shall keep it safely until it is filled, or, if he leaves the district in which he solemnized the marriage before the said book is filled, shall make over the same to the person succeeding to his duties in the said district.

Custody and disposal of register-book. Whoever has the control of the book at the time when it is filled, shall send it to the Marriage Registrar of the district, or, if there be more Marriage Registrars than one, to Senior Marriage Registrar, who shall send it to Registrar General of Birth, Deaths and Marriages, to be kept by kept by him with the records of his office.

PART V
MARRIAGES SOLEMNIZED BY, OR IN THE PRESENCE OF,
A MARRIAGE REGISTRAR

38. Notice of intended marriage before Marriage Registrar.— When a marriage is intended to be solemnized by, or in the presence of, a Marriage Registrar, one, of the parties to such marriage shall give notice in writing, in the form contained in the First Schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect, to any Marriage Registrar of the District within which the parties have dwelt;

or if the parties dwell in different district, shall give the like notice to a Marriage Registrar of each district, and shall state therein the name and surname, and the profession or condition, of each of the parties intending marriage, the dwelling-place of each of them, the time during which each has dwelt therein, and the place at which the marriage is to be solemnized.

Provided that, if either party has dwelt in the place stated in the notice for more than one month, it may be stated therein that he or she has dwelt there one month and upwards.

39. Publication of notice.— Every Marriage Registrar shall, on receiving any such notice, cause a copy thereof to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office.

When one of the parties intending marriage is minor, every Marriage Registrar shall, within twenty-four hours after the receipt by him of the notice of such marriage, send, by post or otherwise, a copy of such notice to each of the other Marriage Registrars (if any) in the same district who shall likewise affix the copy in some conspicuous place in his own office.

40. Notice to be filed and copy entered in Marriage Notice Book.— The Marriage Registrar shall file all such notices and keep them with the records of his office.

And shall also forthwith enter a true copy of all such notices in a book to be furnished to him for that purpose by the Provincial Government and to be called the “Marriage Notice Book”,

And the marriage Notice Book shall be open at all reasonable times, without fee, to a persons desirous of inspecting the same.

41. Certificate of notice given and oath made.— If the party by whom the notice was given requests the Marriage Registrar to issue the certificate next hereinafter mentioned, and if one of the parties intending marriage has made oath as hereinafter required, the Marriage Register shall issue under his hand a certificate of such notice having been given and of such oath having been made:

Proviso provided—

That no lawful impediment be shown to his satisfaction why such certificate should not issue;

That the issue of such certificate has not been forbidden in manner hereinafter mentioned, by any person authorized in that behalf by this Act;

That four days after the receipt of the notice have expired, and further, that four days after the receipt of the notice have expired, and further,

That where, by such oath it appears that one of the parties intending marriage is a minor, fourteen days after the entry of such notice have expired.

42. Oath before issue of certificate.— The certificate mentioned in section 41 shall not be issued by any Marriage Registrar, until one of the parties intending marriage appears personally before such Marriage Registrar, and makes oath—

- (a) that he or she believes that there is not any impediment of kindred or affinity, or other lawful hindrance, to the said Marriage and
- (b) that both the parties have, or (where they have dwelt in the district of different Marriage Registrars) that the party making such oath has, had their, his or her usual place of abode within the district of such marriage Registrar.

And, where either or each of the parties is a minor,--

- (c) that the consent or consents to such marriage required by law has or have been obtained thereto, or that there is no person resident in Pakistan authorized to give such consent, as the case may be.

43. [Petition to High Court to order certificate in less than fourteen days].— omitted by A.O., 1949, Schedule.

44. Consent of father or guardian. Protest against issue of certificate.— The provision of section 19 apply to every marriage under this Part, either of the parties to which is a minor; and any person whose consent to such marriage would be required there under may enter a protest against the issue of the Marriage Registrar's certificate, by writing, at any time before the issue of such certificate, the word "forbidden" opposite to the entry of the notice of such intended marriage in the Marriage Notice Book, and by subscribing thereto his or her name and place of abode, and his or her position with respect to either of the parties, by reason of which her or she is so authorized.

Effect to protest. When such protest has been entered, no certificate shall issue until the Marriage Registrar has examined into the matter of the protest, and is satisfied that it ought not to obstruct the issue of the certificate for the said marriage, or until the protest be withdrawn by the person who entered it.

45. Petition where person whose consent is necessary is insane, or unjustly withholds consent.— If any person whose consent is necessary to any marriage under this part is of unsound mind, or if any such person (other than the father) without just cause withholds his consent to the marriage, the parties, intending marriage may apply by petition, to the District Judge.

Procedure on petition. And the said District Judge may examine the allegations of the petition in a summary way:—

And, if upon examination such marriage appears proper, such District judge shall declare the marriage to be a proper marriage.

Such declaration shall be as effectual as if the person whose consent was needed had consented to the marriage;

And, if he has forbidden the issue of the Marriage Registrar's certificate, such certificate shall be issued and the like proceeding may be had under this Part in relation to the Marriage as if the issue of such certificate had not been forbidden.

46. Petition where Marriage Registrar refuses certificate.— Whenever a Marriage Registrar refuses to issue a certificate under this Part, either of the parties intending marriage may apply by petition to the District Judge.

Procedure on petition. The said District Judge may examine the allegations of the petition in a summary way, and shall decide thereon.

The decision of such District Judge shall be final, and the Marriage Registrar to whom the application for the issue of a certificate was originally made shall proceed in accordance therewith.

47. Petition when Marriage Registrar in Acceding State refuses certificate.— Whenever a Marriage Registrar resident in any Acceding State refuses to issue his certificate either of the parties intending marriage may apply by petition to the Central Government, who shall decide thereon.

Such decision shall be final, and the Marriage Registrar to whom the application was originally made shall proceed in accordance therewith.

48. Petition when Registrar doubts authority of person forbidding.— Procedure on petition. Whenever a Marriage Registrar, acting under the provisions of section 44, is do, the said Marriage Registrar shall apply by petition, to the District Judge. The said petition shall state all the circumstances of the case, and pray for the order and direction of the Court concerning the same.

And the said District judge shall examine into the allegations of the petition and the said circumstances of the case:

And if, upon such examination, it appears that the person forbidding the issue of such certificate is not authorized by law so to do, such District Judge shall declare that the person forbidding the issue of such certificate is not authorized as aforesaid,

And thereupon such certificate shall be issued, and the like proceedings may be had in relation to such marriage as if the issue had not been forbidden.

Reference when Marriage Registrar in Acceding State doubts authority of person forbidding. Whenever a Marriage Registrar appointed under section 8 to act within any Acceding State is not satisfied that the person forbidding the issue of the certificate is authorized by law so to do, the said Marriage Registrar shall send a statement of all the circumstances of the case, together with all documents relating thereto to the Central Government.

Procedure on reference. If it appears to the Central Government that the person forbidding the issue of such certificate is not authorized by law so to do, the Central Government shall declare that the person forbidding the issue of such certificate is not authorized as aforesaid,

And thereupon such certificate shall be issued, and the like proceedings may be had in relation to such Marriage as if the issue of the certificate had not been forbidden.

49. Liability of frivolous protest against issue of certificate.— Every person entering a protest with the Marriage Registrar, under this Part against the issue of any certificate, on grounds which such marriage Registrar; under section 44 or the District Judge, under section 45 or 46, declares to be frivolous and such as ought not to obstruct the issue of the certificate, shall be liable for the costs of all proceedings in relation thereto and for damages, to be recovered by suit by the person against whose marriage such protest was entered.

50. Form of certificate.— The certificate to be issued by the Marriage Registrar under the provisions of provisions of section 41 shall be in the form contained in the Second Schedule to this Act annexed or to the like effect, and the Provincial Government shall furnish to every Marriage Registrar a sufficient number of certificates.

51. Solemnization of marriage after issue of certificate.— After the issue of the certificate of the Marriage Registrar, or, where notice is required to be given under this Act to the Marriage Registrars for different districts, after the issue of the certificates, of the Marriage Registrars for such districts, Marriage may, if there be no lawful impediment to the marriage of the parties described in such certificate or certificates, be solemnized between them, according to such form and ceremony as they think fit to adopt.

But every such marriage shall be solemnized in the presence of some Marriage Registrar (to whom shall be delivered such certificate or certificates as aforesaid), and of two or more credible witnesses besides the Marriage Registrar.

And in some part of the ceremony each of the parties declare as follows, or to the like effect:—

“I do not solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I, A.B., may not be joined in matrimony to C.D.”
