

PUNJAB ENFORCEMENT AND REGULATION ACT, 2024

An Act to provide for establishment of the Punjab Enforcement and Regulatory Authority and to prescribe procedures for efficient and effective implementation and enforcement of special laws throughout Punjab

[Gazette of Punjab, Extraordinary, 17th October, 2024]

No. PAP/Legis-2(09)/2024/164, dated 17.10.2024.--The Punjab Enforcement and Regulation Bill, 2024, having been passed by the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab on October 11, 2024, and assented to by the Governor of the Punjab on October 16, 2024, is hereby published as an Act of the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab.

It is expedient, in the public interest, to establish overarching provincial enforcement authority and procedures in Punjab; to improve coordination and cooperation between existing regulatory agencies under special laws; to streamline regulatory measures across the Province for better and more effective enforcement of special laws; to designate a lead regulator in regulatory areas where existing enforcement is lacking or prone to jurisdictional overlap; to implement a uniform overarching strategy on regulatory compliance; to establish enforcement stations and empower authorized officers to carry out proceedings and hearings; to pursue administrative and non-judicial enforcement actions for violations under special laws; and, to provide for all matters connected therewith and ancillary thereto.

Be it enacted by the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab as follows:

(2) An appeal preferred under sub-section (1) shall be disposed of by the Commissioner within a period of forty-five days from filing of such appeal.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Commissioner, may, within thirty days of the receipt of the decision, file second appeal before the Court and the Court shall decide such appeal within ninety days of its filing.

53. Redressal of grievance.--Any person aggrieved by any alleged misuse of authority by an officer or employee, may, in addition to any other remedy provided in the Act, file a complaint against such officer or employee before the Grievance Redressal Commissioner, or, if no officer is appointed so, before the Chairperson of the Board.

CHAPTER XIV

ENFORCEMENT AND REGULATORY COORDINATION

54. Authority to be lead regulator.--(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, where there exists a regulatory body or agency under Scheduled laws, the Authority shall be deemed to be the lead regulator and the regulatory body or agency under Scheduled laws shall be the secondary regulator and shall exercise enforcement and regulatory deference to the lead regulator:

Provided that the Government may, by notification, designate the regulatory body or agency under Scheduled laws to be the lead regulator instead of the Authority, if necessitated due to expediency and public interest:

Provided further that in respect of regulatory powers and functions that vest in the local governments, the Authority shall not be deemed to be the lead regulator, unless the concerned local government assigns its powers and functions to such extent and on such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed.

Explanation.--Where the Authority is the lead regulator, or where the regulatory body or agency under Scheduled laws has been designated as the lead regulator, as the case may be, the secondary regulator shall not be permitted to take concurrent cognizance of the same violation.

(2) Without prejudice to sub-section (1), the Authority and a regulatory body or agency under Scheduled laws may enter into a memorandum of understanding or other arrangement for establishing distribution of powers and functions between themselves for better and more effective enforcement.

55. Directives by Government.--The Government may, as and when it considers necessary, issue policy directives to the Authority, not inconsistent with the Act or any other law for the time being in force, and the Authority shall comply with such directives.

56. Exchange of Information.--(1) Every Department shall promptly share with the Authority all information and documents that the Authority has requested to provide to it for effective exercise of its powers and performance of its functions under the Act and which information and documents are in possession of such Department.

(2) In order to maintain an integrated information system related to violations, the obligation to exchange the information in sub-section (1) shall be reciprocated by the Authority.

(3) The Authority may enter into any arrangement with any other body or agency for the exchange of information and assistance in performance of its powers and functions under the Act.

CHAPTER XV

ASSISTANCE TO AUTHORITY AND WHISTLE-BLOWER DISCLOSURE

57. Assistance to Authority.--All executive authorities and law enforcement agencies of the Government, including the Punjab Police, and every person, shall act in aid of the Authority and render all possible assistance as may be required by the Authority or any of its members, including incharge of the Enforcement Station and Enforcement Squad, in discharging their duties under the Act.

58. Whistle-blower disclosure.--(1) Any person making any Whistle-blower disclosure shall make a personal declaration stating that he reasonably believes that the information disclosed by him and the allegations contained therein are true to the best of his knowledge and belief, and are not disclosed for any personal reason.

(2) Every Whistle-blower disclosure shall be made, in writing or electronic form, to the Authority or Board or Hearing Officer or Sub-Division Enforcement Officer or Enforcement Officer, in such manner and accompanied by such supporting documents or other material as may be prescribed.

(3) No action may be taken on a Whistle-blower disclosure, if the disclosure does not indicate the identity of the Whistle-blower, or if the identity of the Whistle-blower is found to be incorrect or false on verification.

(4) The Whistle-blower disclosure received under sub-section (2) shall be referred to the Hearing Officer who shall make an assessment of the information contained in the disclosure and verify the same to the extent as may be practicably possible, in such manner as may be prescribed.

(5) Upon assessment and verification under sub-section (4), if the Hearing Officer is of the view that the Whistle-blower disclosure warrants further probe, inquiry or investigation, he shall refer it to the Sub-Divisional Enforcement Officer, not later than twenty-four hours from such assessment and verification, for further action.

59. Reward and punishment.--(1) If any violation or offence is successfully detected by the Authority under the Act as a result of the Whistle-blower disclosure, the person who made the Whistle-blower disclosure may be paid a reward from the Fund as may be prescribed and may be issued a certificate of appreciation by the Authority:

Provided that if more than one person made the Whistle-blower disclosure for the same violation or offence, the reward shall be equitably distributed amongst such persons based on their respective contribution, as determined and deemed fit by the Authority:

Provided further that no reward for any Whistle-blower disclosure shall be permitted if:

- (a) the disclosure is of no value;
- (b) the information in the Whistle-blower disclosure is already within the knowledge of the Authority or Board or employee;
- (c) the information in the Whistle-blower disclosure is a matter of public record; or
- (d) no collection or recovery is made from the Whistle-blower disclosure.

Explanation.--For the purpose of this section, the person making the Whistle-blower disclosure means a natural person.

(2) A person who is found to have made a false, frivolous or vexatious Whistle-blower disclosure, subject to being provided an opportunity of being heard, shall be liable to imprisonment which may extend up to one year or with fine which may extend up to rupees one hundred thousand or with both.

60. Protection of person making Whistle-blower disclosure.--(1) The identity of the person making the Whistle-blower disclosure, not being false, frivolous or vexatious disclosure, shall not be disclosed even after conclusion of the proceedings, except with the written consent of such person, and any unauthorized disclosure of identity of such person shall attract a fine or a penalty as may be prescribed.

(2) On the direction of the Authority, Board or of his own motion, the Hearing Officer may, in consultation with the person making the Whistle-blower disclosure, take any measure for the protection of such person and for such duration and in such manner as may be prescribed.

61. Public to assist the Authority and its employees.--Every person is bound to assist the Authority and its employees by:

- (a) taking or preventing the escape of any person whom an employee is empowered to arrest and detain; and
- (b) preventing a breach of any of the provisions of the Act and Scheduled laws.

62. Public to give information of offences requiring enforcement by the Authority.--(1) Every person, aware of the commission of or of the intention of any other person to commit any act which is an offence under the Act or Scheduled laws, shall forthwith give such information to the nearest Enforcement Station or any employee of the Authority.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-section (1), a person in the area of his residence or work, as the case may be, shall give the following information to the nearest Enforcement Station or any employee of the Authority:

- (a) the permanent or temporary residence of any offender under the Act or Scheduled laws;

- (c) any other matter as may be notified by the Authority.

63. Local headman and chaukidar to assist.--(1) The local headman, chaukidar and other village officials of each village, Deh or Mauza, as the case may be, appointed under any law for the time being in force, shall assist the Authority and its employees with all means and shall provide required information to them.

(2) The local headman, chaukidar and other village officials of each village, Deh or Mauza appointed under any law for the time being in force, shall report in writing all offences under the Act or the Scheduled laws to the nearest Enforcement Station at the earliest.

CHAPTER XVI

COSTS, REWARDS AND REFUNDS

64. Cost of enforcement.--(1) The Enforcement Officer may send a report to the Hearing Officer through Sub-Divisional Enforcement Officer, stating therein the cost incurred and the reasons for incurring the same, for the enforcement purposes under the Act.

(2) The Sub-Divisional Enforcement Officer shall certify the cost of enforcement incurred under sub-section (1).

(3) The Hearing Officer may approve the cost of enforcement after giving an opportunity of hearing to the offender and after perusal of receipts presented before such Hearing Officer.

(4) The cost of enforcement shall be recovered from offender by the Enforcement Officer.

(5) In case, the offender does not pay the cost as determined, the same shall be recovered from auction or sale of confiscated articles or goods, if any.

(6) If the cost remains unsatisfied, the same shall be recovered as arrears of land revenue.

65. Cost of investigation.--The Investigation Officer may get the investigation cost in such manner as may be prescribed.

66. Reward for the employees.--(1) Any employee may be given reward in any form, on his meritorious services or achievements in performance of his duties, as may be prescribed.

(2) A compensation amount may also be sanctioned in favor of an employee in case of any loss of his health or life while performing his duties, as may be prescribed.

67. Refund of fine.--On successful representation or an appeal as the case may be, the Hearing Officer shall refund the fine deposited, in such manner as may be prescribed.

68. Rent of State property.--(1) Besides other cost and penalty, rent shall also be decided by the Hearing Officer against the illegal occupier on the reports submitted by Sub-Divisional Enforcement Officer; provided that rate of such rent shall be applicable as may be prescribed from time to time.

(2) The rent shall be recovered from illegal occupier by the Enforcement Officer.

(3) If the rent or cost of enforcement remains unsatisfied, the same shall be recovered as arrears of land revenue.

CHAPTER XVII

FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

69. Fund.--(1) There shall be a Fund established for the purposes of the Act, to be known as the Punjab Enforcement and Regulatory Authority Fund which shall vest in, be administered and controlled by the Authority.

(2) The Fund shall consist of and be credited with such sums of money received from:

(a) the Government as may be determined to be required for the purposes of the Act, including payment of reward to employees, reward for the Whistle-blower, cost of enforcement, refund of fine, any cost of welfare initiative and other ancillary cost as may be permitted by the Authority; and

(b) any receipt as may be approved by the Government.

(3) The Fund shall be maintained in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

(4) No sum shall be drawn by the Authorized Officer or Drawing and Disbursing Officer from the Fund without prior approval of the Authority.

(5) The Authority may authorize the Hearing Officer to withdraw the following and disburse as may be prescribed:

(a) reward to employees;

(b) reward for the Whistle-blower;

(c) advance for the cost of enforcement;

(d) refund of fine in case of successful representation or appeal;

(e) cost of any permitted welfare initiative by the Authority; and

(f) other ancillary cost as may be permitted by the Authority.

(6) In case of deficit revenue of the Authority, the Government shall provide, from its revenue or any other source, such sum as may be necessary for the performance of functions of the Authority.

70. Accounts.--The Authority shall maintain proper record relating to its financial affairs, including its income and expenditure and its assets and liabilities, in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

71. Budget.--The Authority, through its Authorized Officer, shall prepare, in such manner and at such time as may be prescribed, a budget in respect of next ensuing financial year showing estimated receipts and expenditure of the Authority, including the Enforcement Stations, and shall submit the budget to the Government for approval.

72. Audit.--The accounts of the Authority shall be audited annually by the Auditor General of Pakistan and such qualified auditor or audit agency, appointed with the approval of the Government.

73. Annual report.--(1) The Authority shall, within three months of the close of a financial year, submit to the Government an annual performance report and the Government shall lay it before the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab within ninety days of its receipt.

(2) The report shall consist of:

- (a) the statement of accounts and audited reports of the Authority;
- (b) a comprehensive statement of the work and activities of the Authority and the Enforcement Stations during the preceding financial year; and
- (c) such other matters as may be prescribed or as the Authority may consider appropriate.

CHAPTER XVIII

MISCELLANEOUS

74. Delegation of powers.--The Authority may, by order, delegate any of its powers or functions to the Board or other body or agency or committee of the Government, or any of its members or employees, as it considers appropriate for implementation of the provisions of the Act, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be specified in the order, except the function to:

- (a) frame, amend or repeal the regulations;
- (b) formulate or grant approval for any policy, guideline or procedure under the Act;
- (c) approve the annual report, annual budget and audited accounts of the Authority;
- (d) grant powers to appoint a Drawing and Disbursing Officer;
- (e) make any decision on audit reports;
- (f) determine the terms and conditions of service of employees; and
- (g) constitute a committee of the Authority, or fill any vacancy in a committee.

75. Public servants.--All persons acting or purporting to act under the Act shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of Section 21 of the Pakistan Penal Code, 1860 (XLV of 1860).

76. Indemnity.--No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Government, the Authority or its members or the Board or its members or employees for any damage caused or likely to be caused by any act or omission which is, in good faith, done or intended to be done under the Act, rules or regulations.

77. Overriding effect.--(1) The provisions of the Act shall be read in conjunction with Scheduled laws to the extent provided under the Act.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, whether such law is mentioned in the Schedule or not, the provisions of the Act shall take precedence over the provisions of such other law.

(3) In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between provisions of the Act and provisions of any other law for the time being in force, the provisions of the Act shall, to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency, prevail.

(4) Any order, made under the Act, shall have effect, notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any enactment other than the Act or any instrument having effect by virtue of any enactment other than the Act.

78. Power to make rules.--Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules for the purposes of the Act.

79. Power to frame regulations.--(1) Subject to the provisions of the Act and the rules, the Authority may frame regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of the Act.

(2) The Government may direct the Authority to modify or omit any regulation which, in its opinion, is repugnant to the provisions of the Act or the rules, or which is otherwise against public policy, and the Authority shall comply with such direction.

80. Power to amend Schedule.--The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, amend the Schedule.

81. Guidelines.--(1) The Authority may, with prior approval of the Government, issue guidelines, including but not limited to a code of conduct, for the exercise of powers and performance of functions of its members and employees under the Act, rules or regulations.

(2) Any violation of guidelines or code of conduct issued under sub-section (1) shall be referred to the Authority or to such other authority as may be prescribed for the purposes of taking action in accordance with law.

82. Removal of difficulties.--If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of the Act, the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make such order, not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act, as it may deem necessary for the purposes of removing such difficulty.
