CHAPTER IV

TRACING, FREEZING, FORFEITURE AND CONFISCATION OF ASSETS

31. Freezing of assets, etc.—(1) Where the Special Court, trying an offence punishable under this Act, is satisfied that there appear reasonable grounds for believing that the accused has committed such an offence, it may order freezing of the assets of the accused, his relatives and associates.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Director General or an authorized officer on his behalf, as the case may be, an offence is being or has been committed, he may freeze the assets of such accused and within thirty days of the freezing shall submit to the Special Court the material on the basis of which the freezing was made and further continuation of the freezing or otherwise shall be decided by the Special Court.

(3) The Director General or authorized officer in his behalf, as the case may be, shall trace, identify and freeze the assets during the investigation or trial for the purpose of forfeiture by the Special Court.

32. Tracing of assets.—(1) On receipt of a complaint or credible information or where reasonable suspicion exists about any person that he has acquired or obtained or is in possession of assets through illicit involvement in narcotic substances, an authorized officer shall proceed to trace and identify such assets.

(2) Information about such assets, when collected by the officer so authorized, shall forthwith be laid before the Special Court for forfeiture thereof.

(3) The actions referred to in sub-sections (1) and (2) may include any inquiry, investigation or survey in respect of any person, premises, place, property, conveyance, documents and books of accounts.

33. Order for forfeiture of assets.—(1) Where the Special Court convicts an accused under this Act, the Director General or an authorized officer on his behalf may request the said court by an application in writing along with a list of the assets of the convict or, as the case may be, his associates, relatives or any other person holding or possessing such assets on his behalf, for forfeiture thereof.

(2) Where the Special Court is satisfied that any assets specified in the list referred to in sub-section (1) were derived, generated or obtained in contravention of this Act, it may order that such assets shall stand forfeited to the Government, in case of conviction by Special Court:

Provided that no order under this section shall be made without issuing a notice to show cause and providing a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the person being affected by such order:

Provided further that if such person fails to explain or defaults in appearance before the Special Court on any date appointed by it, the Special Court may proceed to record an order ex-parte on the basis of the evidence available before it.

(3) Where any share in a company is forfeited to the Government under sub-section (2), notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Act, 2017 (XIX of 2017), or any other law for the time being in force or Articles of Association of the Company, such shares shall be registered in the name of the Government.

34. Prohibition of alienation of frozen property.--(1) Where any order under section 32 is made under this Act, any alienation or transfer of such asset be void, and if such asset is subsequently forfeited to the Government, any such alienation or transfer of assets shall be deemed to be of no effect whatsoever.

(2) Any person knowingly alienating or transferring any asset in respect whereof an order has been made under this Act shall be guilty of an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

35. Punishment for acquiring property liable for proceedings under this Act.--Any person knowingly acquiring any asset frozen under this Act shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years and with fine.

36. Power to take possession.--(1) In case of forfeiture of an asset the Special Court may direct the person holding or possessing such asset to surrender or deliver its possession to the Administrator appointed under this Act.

(2) If any person refuses or fails to comply with a direction issued under sub-section (1), the Special Court may require the police assistance to the Administrator.

37. Management of assets frozen or forfeited under this Act.--(1) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint any officer of the Government as it may think fit to perform the functions of an Administrator of the assets frozen or forfeited under this order.

(2) The Administrator appointed under sub-section (1), shall take such actions and exercise such powers as the Government may direct for the maintenance and disposal of the assets which are frozen or forfeited to the Government.

CHAPTER V

SPECIAL COURTS

38. Establishment of the Special Courts.--(1) The Government shall, by notification in the official Gazette, establish as many Special Courts as it considers necessary under this Act and appoint, in consultation with the Chief Justice of the Lahore High Court, the Judges for each

Special Court and where it establishes more than one Special Court, it shall specify in the notification the place of sitting of each Special Court and the territorial limits within which it shall exercise jurisdiction under this Act.

(2) There shall be two classes of Special Courts to try offences under this Act, namely:

(a) Special Courts having the power to try all offences; and

(b) Special Courts having the power to try offences punishable with imprisonment up to three years.

(3) No person shall be appointed as a Judge of the Special Court unless:

(a) in clause (a) of sub-section (2), he is a Sessions Judge or Additional Sessions Judge of the Sessions Division concerned; and

(b) in clause (b) of sub-section (2), he is a Judicial Magistrate First Class of the notified area.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Government may, in consultation with the Chief Justice of the Lahore High Court, designate and confer the powers of a Special Court referred to:

(a) in sub-section (2), in clause (a), on any Sessions Judge or Additional Sessions Judge; and

(b) in sub-section (2), in clause (b), on any Judicial Magistrate of the First Class.

(5) The Special Court shall have all the powers and shall be empowered to follow the procedure as vested in the court trying the offences under the Code.

39. Jurisdiction.--(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Special Court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to try all offences cognizable under this Act and when trying an offence under this Act, may also try an offence other than an offence under this Act with which the accused may, under the Code, be charged jointly at the same trial.

(2) No court other than the Special Court established under this Act shall have the power to entertain any suit or claim relating to the property and forfeiture of assets under this Act.

(3) In the case of offences punishable under this Act, bail may not be granted by the Special Court if there are reasonable grounds connecting the accused with the commission of the offence under this Act.

40. Appeal.--An appeal, under this Act, shall be made against the order of the Special Court in the following manner:

(a) against the order of the Special Court, as specified in clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 39, to the Lahore High Court; and

(b) against the order of the Special Court, as specified in clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 39, to the Court of Sessions or Additional Sessions Judge of the Sessions Division concerned.

41. Transfer of cases.—(1) Where more Special Courts than one are established within the territorial jurisdiction of Lahore High Court, it may, by order in writing, transfer a case, at any stage, from one Special Court to another Special Court, in accordance with section 526 of the Code, as if the Special Court was a Court of Sessions.

(2) On the establishment of Special Courts under section 39, all cases where the sentence of an offence is two years or less, shall stand transferred to the respective Judicial Magistrate and all other cases to the respective Sessions Judges or Additional Sessions Judges of the area notified as Special Courts under this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, a remand may be granted by the nearest Judicial Magistrate of the first class.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code or any other law for the time being in force, a person arrested under this Act, shall having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, be detained in custody for the purpose of inquiry and investigation for a period not exceeding ninety days and the court may remand an accused person to custody not exceeding fifteen days at a time and for every subsequent remand, the Court shall record reasons in writing.

42. Special Prosecutors.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code, the public prosecutors shall conduct the case before the Special Court and any appellate court and to withdraw such proceedings if so directed by the Government or the government may by notification declare any number of Deputy Director or Assistant Director of the Force to also act as ex-officio public prosecutor in respect of all offences relating to narcotics, for trial before the Special Court or any appellate court when so directed by the Director General and may conduct the proceedings in the said Court and deal with any matter connected therewith or ancillary thereto.

(2) Without prejudice to the above clause, the Government may appoint a person, who is an advocate of a High Court or Supreme Court to be a Special Prosecutor on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed and any person so appointed shall be competent to conduct proceedings under this Act before a Special Court and any appellate court and if so directed by the Government, to withdraw such proceedings.

43. Application of the Code.--Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the provisions of the Code shall mutatis mutandis apply to all proceedings under this Act.

44. Application of other laws.--Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, provisions of CNSA or any other law for the time being in force, may be applicable where an offence is committed, involving inter-provincial borders or international borders of Pakistan or territory of Punjab.

CHAPTER VI

MUTUAL CO-OPERATION AND ASSISTANCE

45. Mutual Assistance with the Federal and Provincial Governments.--(1) Subject to the provisions of any other law, the Government shall establish close liaison with the Federal Government and the Governments of other Provinces, in order to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Government, when required, shall assist the Federal Government in performance of its international obligations in relation to prevention of narcotics substances.

(3) The Director General or Commander may request the Federal Government or a Provincial Government, as the case may be, or authorities, entities or public offices to provide assistance for the purpose of this Act.

Provided that the Federal Government, subject to the provisions of CNSA, may extend such assistance to the Government or the department.

(4) The Government or the Director General may, upon request, also authorize to extend assistance to the Federal Government or Governments of any other Provinces, as the case may be, in the proceedings instituted under the relevant anti-narcotics laws or any other law for the time being in force, as may be prescribed.

(5) The request referred to in sub section (3) and (4) may include:

- (a) have evidence taken, documents or other articles produced; or
- (b) obtain and execute search, arrest warrants or other lawful instruments authorizing arrest of any person or a search relevant to investigations or proceedings under this Act, believed to be located within the territory of any Province or under the control of Federal Government, as the case may be, and if found, seize or arrest; or
- (c) freeze assets under this Act; or
- (d) confiscate articles and forfeit assets on reasonable grounds to be confiscated or forfeited believed to be located anywhere in Pakistan; or

- (e) transmit to the Province, any such evidence, documents, things, articles, assets or proceeds realized from the disposal of such articles or assets; or
- (f) transfer in custody the person for investigation or trial before the court of competent jurisdiction under this Act.

46. Reports of the Forensic Science Agency.--(1) Upon receipt a sample for examination, test and analysis, the Punjab Forensic Science Agency or any other Forensic Science Agency as notified by the Federal Government, shall make its report in quadruplicate and deliver to the authorized officer and also forward a copy thereof to the Commander of the Force.

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any such document purporting to be a report signed by a Narcotic Analyst or the Government Analyst as the case may be, shall be admissible as evidence of the facts stated therein without formal proof and such evidence shall, unless rebutted, be conclusive.
