- (g) Officer-in-charge of the police station concerned; and
- (h) an officer of any agency of the Government, to be co-opted by the Committee.
- (2) For the purposes provided in sub-section (3) of section 7, the Committee may:
- (a) scrutinize relevant record and afford an opportunity of hearing to the persons concerned;
- (b) require attendance of any person and require such person to provide information relevant to the complaint;
- (c) call for requisition and examine any record or document from any office of the Government or any public authority;
- (d) record statements of persons appearing before it, through the Officer-in-charge of the police station concerned; and
- (e) encourage and facilitate an amicable resolution of disputes.
- (3) The Officer-in-charge of the police station concerned shall be responsible for, inter alia, ensuring attendance of any person, recording of the statement of any person, seizure memos and collecting all the record.
- (4) The Committee shall finalize and submit its report along with all relevant record, through the Circle Revenue Officer concerned and Officer-in-charge of the police-station concerned, to the Tribunal, within thirty days from the date of referral of the complaint from the Tribunal:

Provided that the Circle Revenue Officer concerned shall be the focal person to liaise with the Tribunal throughout the proceedings, who shall appear as a witness along with the Officer-in-charge of the police station concerned, for and on behalf of the Committee, and other Members of the Committee shall not be called as witnesses.

(5) In case, the dispute has been amicably resolved, or the parties have arrived at a compromise, the Committee shall reduce it into writing and send the same to the Tribunal for its approval and for passing of judgment and decree thereupon and restoration of possession to the lawful owner on such terms and conditions as to compensation or otherwise as may be deemed appropriate by the Tribunal.

(6) The parties shall appear before the Committee in person:

Provided that if a party is unable to appear in person, the Committee may, on the written request of such party, allow appearance through electronic means subject to his biometric verification.]

1[9. Preventive measures.— (1) In case, a lawful owner of an immovable property apprehends commission of an offence under the Act, he may file application before the Tribunal, having territorial jurisdiction over the area in which the immovable property is situated, for taking preventive measures.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-section (1), the Tribunal may summon the parties in person, and after examining the relevant record and hearing the parties, pass such order as it may deem fit and appropriate and such order may include taking reasonable and adequate surety or guarantee from the party concerned or sealing of the property.]

“9. Preventive measures.— (1) In case, an owner or title holder of immovable property apprehends commission of an offence under the Act, he may file application before the Deputy Commissioner concerned for taking preventive measures.

(2) On receipt of the application under sub-section (1), the Deputy Commissioner shall refer the matter to the Committee which may call all the relevant parties, in person, and after examining the relevant record and hearing the parties, pass such order as it may deem fit and appropriate and such order may include taking reasonable and adequate surety or guarantee from the party concerned or sealing of the property.”.

<sup>1</sup>[10. Interim relief.— (1) During pendency of the case, the Tribunal may, at any stage, pass any interim order to regulate the possession of the immovable property, and pass such other orders, as it may deem fit and appropriate.

(2) For the purposes of securing compliance with any order made under sub-section (1), the Tribunal may issue appropriate directions to the Officer-in-charge of the police station or authorize any functionary, or officer, or official, or authority of the Government.]

<sup>2</sup>[11. Punjab Property Tribunal.— (1) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, constitute the Punjab Property Tribunal for each district in the Punjab under the Act, and may, in consultation with the Chief Justice of the Lahore High Court, designate Judge of the Tribunal amongst the serving Additional Sessions Judges, for all the districts in the Punjab, as it may specify.

(2) An Additional Sessions Judge so designated under sub-section (1) shall exercise exclusive jurisdiction, powers and functions conferred upon the Tribunal by or under the Act.

(3) The Government may constitute more than one Tribunal for a district and, where more than one Tribunal is so constituted, it shall specify the territorial limits within which each of such Tribunal shall exercise its respective jurisdiction under the Act.]

<sup>4</sup>[13. Exclusive jurisdiction of Tribunal.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Tribunal shall have exclusive jurisdiction to try the offences under the Act.

(2) While trying any offence under the Act, the Tribunal may also try any other offence with which the alleged accused may, under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), be charged, at the same trial if the offence is connected with such other offence.]

“14. Burden of proof.— Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force including Qanoon-e-Shahadat 1984 (X of 1984), the onus of proof, in case of illegal possession, shall lie on the offender under the Act.”.

inconsistent with the provisions of the Act, shall apply to the proceedings before the Tribunal and for the purposes of the provisions of the said enactments, Tribunal shall be deemed to be a Civil Court, or as the case may be, a Court of Sessions and shall have all the powers of a Civil Court and Court of Sessions.

16. Procedure of the Tribunal.— (1) Upon receipt of the report of the Committee under section 8 of the Act, the Tribunal shall proceed with the matter and try every case arising out of any alleged offence with respect to the ownership, or illegal possession of the immovable property.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Tribunal shall also have exclusive jurisdiction to determine the question of title, if any, of the immovable property being subject matter of the case.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Tribunal shall have exclusive jurisdiction for the trial of any complainant whose complaint has been found false, frivolous or vexatious and if the complaint is found false, frivolous or vexatious by the Tribunal, the complainant shall be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years but not less than one year and fine which may extend to five hundred thousand rupees.

(4) For the purposes of sub-sections (2) and (3) of this section, the Tribunal may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, follow such summary procedure as it may deem appropriate.

(5) The Tribunal shall try the offences under sections 4 and 5 of the Act in accordance with the procedure provided under Chapter XXII-A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898).

(6) Every case shall be proceeded on a day-to-day basis and decided by the Tribunal within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of report by the Tribunal and the case shall not be adjourned for any purpose unless such adjournment is, in its opinion, necessary in the interest of justice, and no adjournment shall, in any case, be granted for more than seven days.

(7) The Tribunal may award monetary compensation for wrongful and illegal possession of the immovable property which shall not be less than the value of the immovable property so possessed, as determined in accordance with the valuation table notified under the Stamp Act, 1899 (II of 1899), as on the date of the final judgment and in addition thereto, the

“16. Procedure of the Tribunal.— (1) The Tribunal shall, upon referral of the matter by the concerned Committee, take cognizance of it and try every case arising out of any alleged offence with respect to the ownership and title to, or possession of immovable property occupied illegally whether before or after the commencement of the Act, and pass such orders as it deems fit.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act or any other law for the time being in force, the Tribunal shall also have exclusive jurisdiction to determine the question of title, if any, of the immovable property under reference and for the purpose, may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, follow such summary procedure as it deems appropriate.

(3) The Tribunal shall try the offences under the Act in accordance with the procedure provided under Chapter XXIIA of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898).

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) or in any other law for the time being in force, the Tribunal may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, dispense with any provision of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898) and follow such procedure as it may deem fit in the circumstances of the case.

(5) Every case shall be proceeded on day-to-day basis and shall be decided by the Tribunal within a period of ninety days from the date of its receipt by the Tribunal.

(6) The Tribunal may award monetary compensation for wrongful and illegal possession of immovable property which shall not be less than the value of the immovable property so possessed, as determined in accordance with the valuation table notified under the Stamp Act 1899 (II of 1899), as on the date of the order and in addition thereto, the Tribunal may order payment of any profit or gain accrued from such property or any superstructure constructed thereupon, by the offender to the lawful owner, and may further direct restoration of possession of the immovable property to its lawful owner.

(7) The amount of compensation and profit, so awarded and cost of restoration of possession, if any, shall be recovered as arrears of land revenue.

(8) The Tribunal may, at any stage of the case, order the arrest of a person for an offence under the Act, through police or an agency or authority of the Government.

(9) Upon transfer of a case under sub-section (6) of section 8, the Tribunal shall proceed in the case as provided under this section and it shall not be necessary for it to re-examine any witness or record any evidence that has already been recorded; however, the Tribunal may refer such case to the Committee for resolution of the matter or for its opinion and the Committee shall, thereafter, proceed in accordance with section 8.

(10) Upon conclusion of the trial, the Tribunal, while deciding the title or ownership of the immovable property, shall pronounce a judgement and pass a decree accordingly.”

Tribunal may order payment to the lawful owner of any profit or gain accrued from such immovable property or any superstructure constructed thereupon, by the accused.

(8) The amount of compensation and profit so awarded and the cost of restoration of possession, if any, shall be recovered as arrears of land revenue.

(9) The Tribunal may, at any stage of the case, order the arrest of any accused for an offence under the Act, through police or an agency or authority of the Government.

(10) Subject to the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), no court other than the Lahore High Court shall have the power to grant bail or order release of the accused arrested under sub-section (9).

(11) Where any case involving illegal possession of the immovable property is pending before any court or tribunal, other than the Federal Constitutional Court of Pakistan, Supreme Court of Pakistan or Lahore High Court, a lawful owner may file an application before such court or tribunal for transfer of the said case to the Tribunal and such court or tribunal, after evaluating the record of the case and hearing all the persons concerned, if it is satisfied that the case, prima facie, falls under the exclusive jurisdiction of the Tribunal, shall transfer the said case to the Tribunal:

Provided that such court or tribunal shall decide such application within a period of fifteen days positively.

(12) Upon receipt of a case or proceeding by means of a transfer under sub-section (11), the Tribunal may proceed with the case from the stage at which it was pending before such other court or tribunal, and it shall not be necessary for the Tribunal to re-examine any witness or record any evidence that has already been recorded; however, the Tribunal may refer such case to the Committee for amicable resolution of the matter or for its report, as the case may be, in terms of sections 7 and 8 of the Act.

(13) Upon conclusion of the trial, the Tribunal, if deciding the title or ownership of the immovable property, shall pronounce a judgement and pass a decree accordingly.]

<sup>2</sup>18. Delivery or restoration of possession to lawful owner.— (1) Upon conclusion of the proceedings, either through trial or otherwise, the Tribunal shall order delivery or restoration of the possession of the immovable property to its lawful owner if such lawful owner is not already in possession.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the Tribunal may direct the Officer-in-charge of the police station or any functionary of any other agency or authority of the Government to render such assistance as may be necessary for ensuring the delivery or restoration of possession of the immovable property to its lawful owner.]

“17. Eviction and mode of recovery as an interim relief.— (1) The Tribunal may, at any stage of the case, regulate the possession of immovable property and issue such interim orders as it deems appropriate.

(2) For the purpose of securing compliance with an order made under sub-section (1), the Tribunal may authorize any officer, official, or authority of the Government to take possession of the property, and the officer, official or authority so authorized may use, or cause to be used, such force as may be necessary for giving effect to the order.”.
